

Insurance for foreign visitors

Studying or working in a foreign country can be an exciting experience. But what happens if you become ill or need medical assistance while abroad? What if your mobile or computer is stolen? State insurance coverage can make these difficult situations easier for you.

Please follow the link to Kammarkollegiet, a public authority and a governmental insurance company, for more information.